

Key Assessment Criteria: Geography

Early Learning Goals (Reception)	A Year 1 Geographer	A Year 2 Geographer
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know about similarities and differences between myself and others, and among families, communities and traditions. • I know about similarities and differences in relation to places, objects, materials and living things. • I can talk about the features of my own immediate environment and how environments might vary from one another. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can keep a weather chart and answer questions about the weather. • I can explain where I live and tell someone my address. • I can explain some of the main things that are in hot and cold places. • I can explain the clothes that I would wear in hot and cold places. • I can explain how the weather changes throughout the year and name the seasons. • I can name the four countries in the United Kingdom and locate them on a map. • I can name some of the main towns and cities in the United Kingdom. • I can carry out fieldwork and use observational skills to study the geography of our school and grounds. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can say what I like and do not like about the place I live in. • I can say what I like and do not like about a different place. • I can describe a place outside Europe (Australia) using geographical words. • I can describe some of the features of an island (Australia). • I can describe the key features of a place (Australia & UK) from a picture using words like beach, coast, forest, hill, mountain, ocean, and valley. • I can explain how jobs may be different in other locations. • I can explain the facilities that a village, town and city may need and give reasons. • I can name the continents of the world and locate them on a map. • I can locate the world oceans on a map. • I can name the capital cities of England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland. • I can find where I live on a map of the United Kingdom. I can carry out fieldwork and use observational skills to study the geography of our school and grounds and the key physical and human features of its surrounding environment.

Key Assessment Criteria: Geography

A Year 3 Geographer	A Year 4 Geographer	A Year 5 Geographer	A Year 6 Geographer
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can name and locate some counties within the United Kingdom. • I can use an atlas by using the index to find places. • Using an atlas I can name some countries in the northern hemisphere and southern hemisphere. • I can locate the equator, Tropic of Cancer and Tropic of Capricorn on a map. • I can explain why many cities are situated on or close to rivers. • I can explain what the source and mouth of the river means. • I can name and locate some of the world's most famous rivers in an atlas. • I can name and locate some countries in South America. • I can describe human and physical features of Brazil. • I can compare life in Britain to life of a tribe in the Amazon Rainforest. • I can explain the consequences of deforestation. • I can carry out fieldwork about the facilities available on Moreton Hall. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can use grid references on a map. • I can explain why people may choose to live in one place rather than another. • I know that some European countries are members of the European Union and they share the same currency. • I can use an atlas to locate the capital cities of neighbouring European countries. • I can describe how some places are similar and dissimilar in relation to their human and physical features. • I can describe the climate in the Polar region and other biomes. • I can identify the Arctic and Antarctic Circles on a map. • I can locate and name some of the world's most famous volcanoes. • I can describe how volcanoes are created. • I can explain how global warming is affecting the world. • I can describe the water cycle – covered in science. • I can name some human and physical features in Italy. • I can carry out fieldwork about the school environment (litter pick). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can plan a journey to a place in another part of the world, taking account of distance and time • I can name and locate the world's most famous mountainous regions in an atlas • I can describe how mountains are created • I can describe climate and physical features of a desert. • I can name the largest desert in the world and locate desert regions on a map. • I can describe how earthquakes are created • I can name the human and physical features of Chile (mountains and deserts). • I can use some basic Ordnance Survey map symbols. • I can explain how time zones work and calculate time differences around the world. • I can use fieldwork to carry out surveys. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can use Ordnance Survey symbols, 6 figure grid references and compass points. • I can answer questions by using a map. • I can name and locate some of the main islands that surround the United Kingdom. • I understand the US is split into states. • I can research States in North America and present my finding to an audience. • I can describe trade links with the US and economic activity. • I can collect and accurately measure information and present it in a graph (e.g. rainfall, temperature, wind speed, noise levels etc). • I can accurately measure rainfall and discuss my findings. • I can use fieldwork to carry out surveys. I can present my findings in graphs, plans and use digital technology.